2. Exam Set-Up and Preparation Centre responsibilities on their premises

Written Examination Rooms

The written test room must be set up with tables a sufficient distance apart before the arrival of the Cambridge English Exam team. There must not be any English on the walls.

The Centre will communicate the time of arrival – usually 45 minutes -1 hour before the start time.

A USB player MUST be provided in written test room.

Speaking Examination Rooms

Ushers

Ushers must be available for both the Written and Speaking Tests. They are an integral and imperative part of the organisation of the YLE tests. The candidates must be ushered to the Written exam room 10 minutes before the scheduled start time. An Usher must be available to escort the candidates from the Written test room upon completion of the exam. The user therefore has direct contact with the Cambridge Supervisor.

Ushers at the Speaking test must ensure that the candidates who have taken the Speaking test do not have contact with candidates who have not yet taken the Speaking test.

The Usher duties can be summarized as follows:

- bring child 1 to the seating area outside the test room, reminding him/her of the format of the tests
- when the examiner is ready to take the child in, introduce the examiner to the child
- bring child 2 from the waiting room to the seated area outside the test room and remind the child of the format of the test.
- when child 1 finishes the speaking test and leaves the room, he/she goes to the waiting room designated for "after" the speaking test
- when the examiner is ready to take child 2 in, introduce the child to the examiner
- repeat the procedure for all children
